Advent calendar excitement has started as the countdown to Christmas begins. We have been singing carols and songs all week, ready for the carol singing event next week.

On Tuesday, Arctic Foxes travelled out of the county to the badlands of Norwich, to visit the newly re-opened Castle Museum. They had a lovely time researching and learning more about the Stone, Iron and Bronze Ages. Miss Clements and Mrs. Hall were so proud of their attitude and behaviour- the class were sharing a workshop with two other schools and Earl Soham shone! Well done, Arctic Foxes!

On Thursday, the PTFA wreath workshop took place in the school hall. Led by Mrs. Stoney and Mrs. Lock, the group of wreath makers worked really hard and the finished wreaths looked beautiful. Thank you to the PTFA for organising and the donations of foliage from staff and parents.

Many thanks for the replies on Class Dojo this week- due to popular demand, I will continue to share the weekly newsletter! I always enjoy writing it and sharing all the lovely things that happen at the school each week. I'm glad so many of you enjoy reading it too!

After another small car got stuck on the muddy side of the car park, please can I remind 4x4 drivers (including staff!) that it would be really helpful if they parked in that section so that smaller cars can park in slightly drier available spaces.

Have a good week.

Jen Carlyle
